

CORDIAL WELCOME HOME GIVEN "RED" DUCEY

THE hero of many battle in which he saw men fall on all sides and in which he had scores of hair-breadth escapes from death, Sergeant James (Red) Ducey, Fayette county's most decorated soldier, reached this city on the Saturday morning train, was given a rousing welcome by 2,000 to 3,000 citizens, and led by the Washington Band and escorted by the Fayette War Work Council, the Eagles Lodge and comrades and friends, was taken to the home of his mother, Mrs. Ellen Ducey, on John Street.

Sergeant Ducey was modestly wearing only a part of the numerous decorations won during his more than two years of service overseas, during which time he never received a wound, while beating the Huns and helping the Marines win for themselves the sobriquet of "Devil Dogs" applied by the astonished Huns. The remainder of his decorations were tucked away in his pockets.

The Eagles Lodge, of which Sergeant Ducey is a member, had arranged for the band and members of the order to meet the returning hero, and their plans were augmented by the assistance of the War Work Council, with the result that the reception accorded Sergeant Ducey was equal to that of any previous demonstration, and the crowds cheered the man who, single handed, killed the crew of and captured a German machine gun, as well as performing other feats of heroism equally as great, while showing the Huns what sort of stuff they had to deal with when the bull-dog Marines got into action and could go only one way—forward.

After hearty handclaps and words of welcome from hundreds of friends at the station, Sergeant Ducey was paraded up through town with the band playing martial airs and friends along the way shouting words of greeting. Sergeant Ducey walked directly behind the band, with Charman M. S.

Daugherty, of the War Work Council on one side and Major Reil G. Allen on the other, followed by members of the Eagles Lodge, War Work Council and friends and admirers.

THE GREETING AT CINCINNATI

With a smile of the sort that won't rub off, Sergeant Jim Ducey stepped off the C. & O. Washington-Cincinnati flier which arrived in Cincinnati shortly after six o'clock Friday evening and was quickly gathered in and carried away by a reception committee made up of friends and representatives of the Fayette County War Chest Committee which had gathered at the station to meet him.

The Sergeant, who had not anticipated the greeting, was literally taken off his feet for the moment, but the preliminary hand-shaking over, he responded heartily and with a wide grin:

"Well, folks, it certainly is good to look at you."

"How does it feel to get back to Ohio, Red," asked one of his friends.

"Sa-ay, it's the best I'll old spot in the world," was the quick reply.

"Kinda miss the war, won't you old timer?" someone asked, evidently with the hope of drawing out the soldier regarding some of his experiences.

"Fin le guerre," was the terse reply, delivered with a smile and a knowing look that clearly dismissed the subject.

MOTHER FIRST.

The sergeant's first inquiry was for the welfare of his mother, Mrs. Ellen Ducey, of John Street, and on being informed that she was well and happy he was without further concern.

In the receiving party were his brother, John Ducey, of this city, and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Anna Ducey, of 1031 Wade Street, Cincinnati, to whose home he was taken following the greeting and where he spent the night.

Upon reaching Court Street in front of the Court House, the marchers turned into the Court House Square, passing beneath the huge memorial arch with bared heads, and pausing at the foot of the Court House steps, up which the smiling Marine was led. Elden Evans, of the First Division, just returned, also was escorted to the top of the steps.

Hon. C. A. Reid delivered a short address of welcome in which he praised the brave young men for their part in the war, and expressed the great joy of the community to have them safely returned to their homes and loved ones. His words drew forth outbursts of applause from the crowd, and smiles of appreciation from "Red."

Sergeant Ducey then was escorted to his home, several hundreds of citizens accompanying the band and escort of Eagles.

Upon nearing the home of his mother, the soul-stirring notes of "Home Sweet Home" arose above the shouts of friends, and tears of joy sprung to many eyes.

The aged mother, moist eyed, stood at the gate of her home to welcome her hero son whom she had not seen for over two years, and who was returning, safe and sound and honored as no other Fayette county boy has been honored in the service of his country.

It was a touching meeting as the mother, through smiles and tears, clasped her beloved son to her breast, and the young hero embraced his mother and pressed a kiss to her cheek.

"I'm too happy to say anything," said Sergeant Ducey to his friends as the crowd slowly melted away and left him with his loved ones.

Sergeant Ducey enlisted in the Marines two days after war was declared, and was among the first Marines to reach the battlefield and go into action. It was his commander who, when requested by the French officer to fall back before the advancing Germans, said: "Hell, no! We've just got here and my men can only go one way—forward!"

He was in the Eighteenth Company, Fifth Regiment, Second Battalion and knew what it was to use the "cold steel" at close range.

He was selected as one of ten men among 250 to form the Composite Regiment which General Pershing led in the victory parades in London and Paris, and one of five men selected from 250 to form General Pershing's bodyguard in Washington, D. C.

He took part in seven major engagements, and in addition to his four service stripes, and insignia of the Second Division, has two Croix de Guerres (French war cross) two Victory Ribbons, five bronze stars, two silver stars, an expert rifleman's badge and a bronze medal.

Steel Company Officials Confident Next Week Will Record Heavy Defections From The Ranks of Strikers.

Strike Leaders Neglect No Effort to Strengthen Position

Chicago Claims Number of Men Returning to Work Increasing Steadily.

(By Associated Press.)

New York, September 27.—The first week of the great steel strike ended today with the situation a virtual deadlock while both sides waited with keen anticipation for Monday when a crucial test will be afforded of the claims of the opponents' relative strength.

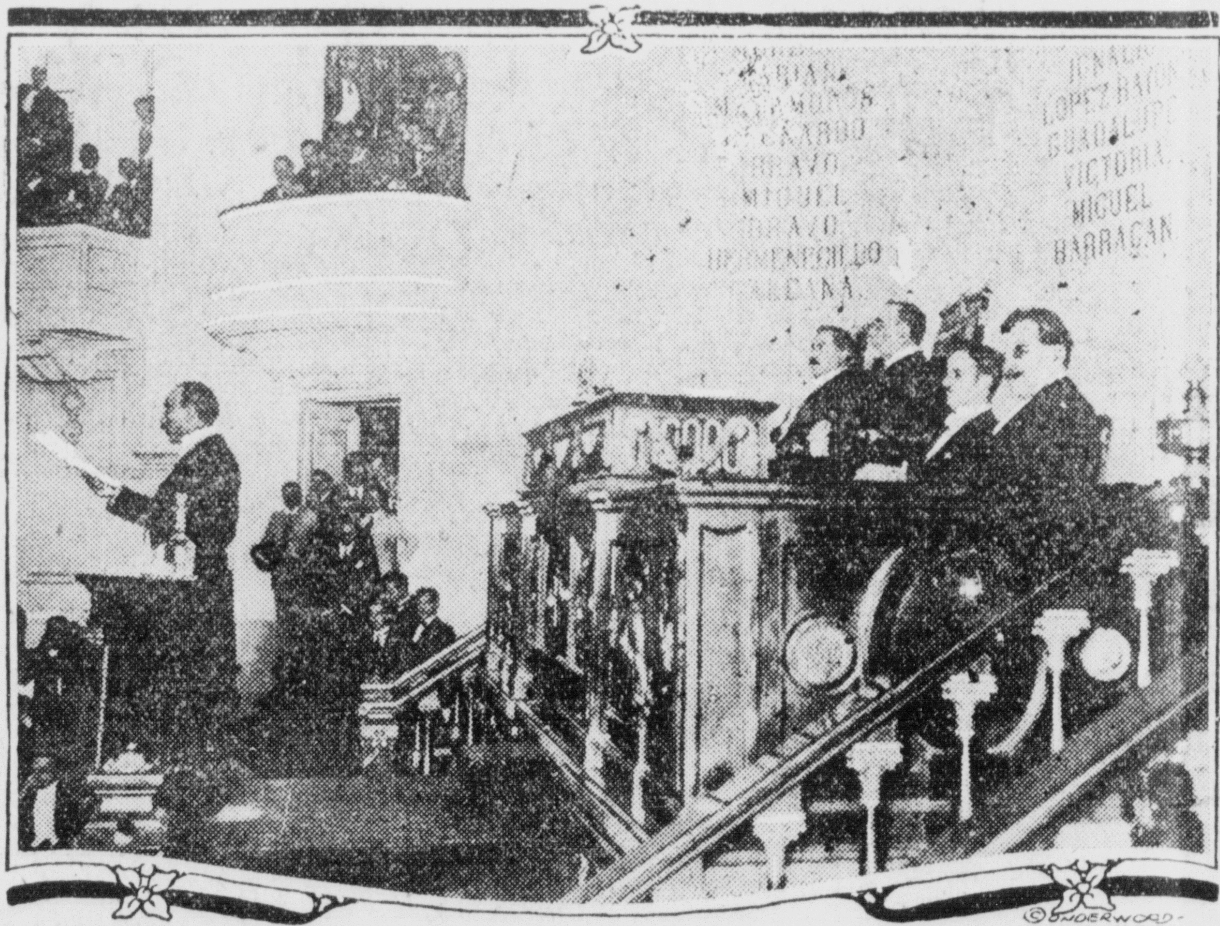

Steel corporation officials are confident the opening of the coming week will see such defections in the ranks of the strikers that the back of the union's resistance would be broken. Leaders of the strikers were equally optimistic in their predictions that the ranks of their followers would not be seriously breached.

In the meantime the strike leaders were neglecting no effort to strengthen their position in anticipation of the coming tests. Mass meetings were held today and will be continued Sunday throughout the Pittsburgh district.

Steel company officials in the Chicago district continued their claim that increasing numbers of men are returning to work and announced re-opening additional mills at Gary.

The National Committee at a meeting at Pittsburgh today ordered a general strike in the Bethlehem Steel

OHIO STRIKERS PLAN MARCH INTO WEIRTON

Secretary Wilson Says That 5,000 to 8,000 Men Will Cross State Line

Columbus, O., September 27.—With no trouble and few developments reported chief interest in the steel strike in Ohio today continued to center in the proposal of union steel workers at Steubenville to march to Secretary Wilson of the Steubenville strike committee declared 5,000 to 8,000 men would march to Weirton and he could not prevent them. Governor Cornwell of West Virginia sent another telegram to Governor Cox today, holding the Ohio chief executive responsible for developments should the "invasion" be made.

Rome, September 27.—Alarmist reports are current in this city, one of them being that a civil war is imminent.

On one side would be arrayed the Nationalists and militarist factions, which would be opposed by the Socialists.

Several generals are credited with the intention of heading the militarist faction, with a view to controlling the government, it being said that they believe the weakness of those in power since the armistice caused the present deadlock.

Some of these generals have already been mentioned as being in league with Captain d'Annunzio before the Fiume raid, with the object of overpowering by force the Nitti cabinet and replacing it with a military dictatorship. The navy is represented as being even more dissatisfied than the army.

Great Liner Imperator Passes Permanently to The United States.

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, September 27.—Holding that the original allocation to the United States of eight German ships delivered after the signing of the armistice was permanent, the United States Shipping Board today proceeded to work with plans to take over the vessels and place them in the passenger and freight services between the United States and Great Britain and other countries.

One of the ships, the former Hamburg-American ocean liner, Imperator, had been awarded by the Inter-Allied shipping commission to the Cunard Line. The British minister of shipping at New York had expected the vessel to be delivered to him today.

Last night, however, an agreement was reached between the War Department and Shipping Board for delivery of the craft together with the other seven. Great Britain contended the allocation was only temporary.

OCT. 21, 22, 23 DATES SET FOR HOSPITAL DRIVE

October 21, 22, and 23, were the dates set for the county-wide drive for sale of stock in the new hospital Friday evening when the committee of twelve met at the war council rooms.

Tentative plans were discussed and formed in regard to the manner of carrying out the campaign and it was decided that workers under the head of a chairman in each township in the county and ward in the city would be appointed to launch the drive successfully.

The drive for stock will mean the soliciting for sale of $50,000 worth to the citizens of the county as their investment in the improvement.

AN INQUIRY

September 26, 1919.

To Mr. Nolan Hathaway,
Washington C. H., Ohio.

Dear Sir:

Since the attention of the public has been called to the need of a larger and better Hospital for Fayette County, a growing number of people seem interested in knowing just where "Beem & Beem" stand in relation to the proposed drive and the question of the new institution in general.

We always expect to be interested in any move that has the welfare of Washington C. H. and Fayette County at heart and always hope to be able to lend ourselves to any cause that will better the condition of the community. And we are with you in the feeling that Fayette County needs a larger and more complete Hospital.

As you are chairman of the committee selected to conduct the drive for funds for the new Hospital we are coming to you for information.

As we understand it, the people of this city and county are to be asked to contribute or buy stock to the amount of $50,000 to make the new Hospital possible and by so doing the Hospital is to be a public institution for the people of Washington C. H. and Fayette County.

Are we correct?

If the people of our city and county by their contributions and purchase of stock make the new Hospital a reality, are the people of our city and county who from time to time become patients in this hospital going to be given unrestricted right and freedom to choose and have for themselves the method and kind of treatment they desire, whether their choice be medical treatment or drugless treatment?

We believe the people themselves should have, at all times, the individual right to choose and decide the method they desire employed to regain their health. Especially is this true in this instance if the people are to be solicited for funds and the Hospital is to be their institution, financed with their money.

If such right is guaranteed to the public we stand ready to co-operate with you. Not only in the drive for funds but to the extent that we will gladly devote the time necessary at the hospital, absolutely gratis, to the giving of Chiropractic adjustments to patients unable to pay for their care and who desire Chiropractic employed as their method and way back to health.

While you may feel that our inquiry is a matter to be left to the future board of directors, yet as two who are really interested in the move for a better hospital we believe the people in general as well as ourselves will appreciate having that point made clear at this time and we are convinced it will add to the success of the drive to do so.

Trusting you will grant the favor of an early reply, we beg to remain,

Sincerely,

BEEM & BEEM.

By Thos. G. Beem.

HOLDING ALLEGED AUTO STEALERS

Police of Chillicothe believe that in the arrest of Russell Babb, of Chillicothe, and Homer Betts, proprietor of a canteen restaurant opposite the No. 4 Camp Sherman fire exchange, they have unearthed a pair of clever men who have been running a "fence" for stolen automobiles.

The men are said to have had in their possession equipment for removing the serial numbers on engines and retagging the machines, as well as making other changes that would conceal the identity of a machine.

It is understood that the men had disposed of a number of Ford machines, and that two Fords in their possession had had the engine numbers chiseled out and new numbers cut.

DETERMINED that the limitations of the phonograph should not prevent his music pupils from learning the details of tone-shading of the masters, Forest Chenev evolved the instrument which today bears his name.

By combining the fundamental principles of the violin and pipe organ, he achieved new heights in the science of tone reproduction.

Tones become rich and full. The serene purity of the reproduction is comparable only to the original production.

That is the story of the invention of the Chenev—its romance is in keeping with the wonderful progress it represents.

Chenev cabinets are made by the master furniture craftsmen of the country. In refinement and beauty they are matched only by the artistry hidden within.

2. Chenev Tone Arm—where tones are amplified and reflected from flat surfaces. Noise vibrations are muted.
3. Chenev Throat—where sounds are gathered and controlled as in a living throat.
4. Chenev Orchestral Chambers—which amplify tones still further and add quality and sweetness to them. All tones preserved in perfect balance.

XENIA TO BUY WATER PLANT

At an election held in Xenia Thursday on the question of issuing $325,000 worth of bonds for the purchase of the Xenia Water Company's plant, the vote stood 552 for the issuance of the bonds and 262 against the proposal, the issue carrying by the narrow margin of nine votes.

As a result of the election the bonds will be issued and $260,000 of the amount will be given for the physical equipment of the company, and the remaining for developing the plant and modernizing it where needed.

In connection with the purchase by the city, the Xenia Gazette says: "The present water supply was installed in 1887, by the Xenia Water Company, a private concern. The supply of water was drawn from impounded springs at the present north pumping station near Springfield pike that in dry seasons this supply was inadequate. In 1896 wells were drilled southwest of the city, the present Cincinnati pike pumping station.

"With the increasing demand for water owing to the wholesale abandonment of private wells in the city and a beginning failure of the driven wells an effort was made to find a new source of supply. To this purpose the Water Company sunk three test-wells near Old Town Mill. In 1913, a test pumping of which showed them capable of furnishing an almost unlimited supply. To bring this new supply to the company's old plant would require an estimated cost of over $60,000. As the Company had not been paying dividends and had not an accumulated reserve to meet this charge it offered a sufficient quantity of stock for sale for this purpose, but found no buyers.

"So matters stood until the proposition to purchase the holdings of the company was taken up by Xenia City.

EVEN WOOD MAY BE AT PREMIUM IF MINERS QUIT

Serious Situation Confronting Citizens if Coal Miners Carry Out Threat.

Great Increase in Price of Coal May Come in Near Future is Belief.

If the demands of the coal miners are not met, a strike which may cut off virtually the entire supply of coal for an indefinite period will, in all probability, be the result, and if so, Washington citizens will suffer during the coming winter, and the burning of wood will once more become necessary.

If the demands of the miners are met, dealers believe that the result will be reflected at once in a tremendous increase in the price of coal.

At the present time the coal supply in the city is not a heavy one, and probably 50 to 60 percent of the people have their winter's supply of coal on hand.

Many persons are not aware that the miners are demanding a 60 percent increase in pay, five days work a week instead of six, a six-hour day instead of eight hours, time and a half for over time and double time for Sundays and holidays, an abolishment of more than one shift a day, and nationalization of mines.

The union leaders have been instructed to accept no compromise, and it is predicted that operators will refuse to recognize the demands; should this occur, miners say they will declare a strike scheduled for November 1, paralyzing mines in southeastern and eastern Ohio where Washington and other central Ohio cities secure the bulk of their coal.

The situation is rendered even more precarious by the fact that operators declare that a car shortage hampers their output to such an extent that the country is even now short 100,000,000 tons of coal. Walter D. Hines, director general of railroads, recently declared before the inter-state commerce commission that there was nothing in the transportation situation to justify increased prices of coal. Operators declare that in many cases the shortage has been as high as seventy percent.

But unless the car shortage becomes more acute or a strike is declared, Ohio operators declare that sufficient coal will be kept moving to meet the demands of domestic consumers, and probably enough for all manufacturing concerns. However, granting of the miners' demands would double the price of coal at the mines and would result, with proportionate increases in handling it till it reached consumers, in practically and increase of 100 percent.

Ohio operators are of the opinion that the men do not intend to insist on working only six hours a day, but want time and a half if kept at work longer. The miners also are urging that at no time, even with a shortage imminent, shall more than one shift a day be used, say the operators, who in turn declare that in such an event, it would manifestly be impossible to meet the demands of the public for coal. They declare that the car shortage makes it imperative that the operators work at the peak when cars are available, and that they ease up when they are not.

GERMAN PRESS EXPOSES SCHEME OF MILITARISTS

With the American Forces in Germany, September 1.—(By Mail)—An entirely new scheme for establishing a reserve army in Germany in anticipation of some future opportunity to establish German military power is seen by some German newspapers in a plan they have just discovered and exposed.

While the scheme is confined to only one regiment and so probably has no sanction from the War Ministry it is an indication in the opinion of American army officers who for eight months have been studying demobilization of the German forces, of how hard Prussian militarism dies.

The Lightschlag corps in Westphalia, now the Sixty-second Reichswehr (National Army) regiment of the Thirty-First Reichswehr brigade, has sent out circulars to all men who have served in this volunteer unit since the armistice, urging them to sign a pledge to answer to a call to the colors in the event of general disorder or a new revolution. The Freiheit, the Independent Socialist organ in Berlin, suggests that the men responsible for the scheme really have in mind something more than suppression of disorders, the paper then quoting from the circular as follows:

"Soon the time will come when the Fatherland will have need of every resolute and proven arm."

CANADA'S HUGE WAR DEBT IS STILL GROWING

(By Associated Press)

Ottawa, Canada, September 27.—Official estimates, just made public, show that Canada's present war expenditures, exclusive of pensions, totals about $500,000 a day. The Dominion debt has amounted to more than $1,500,000,000.

Total war expenses for August was $14,087,000, a reduction of about $4,500,000 over August of 1918. Since the end of March, the beginning of the fiscal year, capital expenditure for war purposes totaled $121,487,189, almost double what it was for the same period last year.

Revenue receipts have increased notably this summer. Current revenue for August was $32,704,000, compared with $26,395,000 for the previous August.

Depreciation of the value of Canadian currency is receiving constant attention from treasury officials. It has been pointed out that the condition probably cannot be remedied until part of the heavy trade balance against Canada in the United States is met. These debts have to be paid in bullion or American currency and for some time Canadian banks have been buying American currency with Canadian currency, paying an average premium of 3 percent.

HOSPITAL WILL COMMEMORATE YANKEES' WORK

(By Associated Press.)

Paris, August 30.—(By Mail)—The memory of the American soldiers who fell at Cantigny is to be perpetuated at the Montdidier by the establishment of a municipal hospital constructed from American Red Cross barracks. Over the entrance to the administration building will be an inscription reading: "Gift of the American Red Cross to the Town of Montdidier. In Memory of the American Soldiers Who Fell at Cantigny."

Cantigny, in the valley below Montdidier, was the first American battlefield in France. In the beginning of the Allied advance last summer, the Americans captured Cantigny against tremendous odds, advancing further than any other troops in taking it.

Many Americans lie buried on the hillsides about the town. The French country people are keeping the graves green, many of the families having "adopted" American graves.

In the country surrounding Montdidier, the soldier-peasant is returning to the soil. Crops are growing where in January there were hundreds of shell holes, dugouts and trenches. Nearly half of the devastated fields in the district have been reclaimed. But while this has been going on the villages have in a large measure been neglected. Social life, however, is being rapidly restored. Churches and schools are springing up everywhere and in many cases Red Cross barracks are serving for this purpose.

Despite the fact that their homes are dark cellars and dugouts, the people are cheerful and never fail to express their gratitude and appreciation for what America has done for them.

OIL INDUSTRY IS INCREASING IN OLD MEXICO

Mexico City, August 30.—(By Mail)—A stupendous array of figures greets the investigator who attempts to ascertain how much oil has been conveyed from Mexico during the past few years and what the profits are to those who have ventured to sink fortunes in an effort to tap the petroleum deposits that are known to underlie certain portions of the republic.

A statement recently furnished to The Associated Press by the Department of Commerce and Industry graphically portrays growth of this industry which now, as during the war when its well furnished stock of the motive power that took troops and supplies to France and victory, occupies such a prominent place in the relations between Mexico and the United States.

From 1901 to 1918, inclusive, the production of crude petroleum in the republic amounted to 285,910,798 barrels, every year showing a consistent gain over that previous. In 1901 only 10,345 barrels were produced. In 1914 production reached 26,235,403 barrels; and in 1918 63,828,326 barrels.

During the years of 1918 out of 63,828,326 barrels of petroleum produced two companies (El Guila and Huasteca) produced 37,107,104, according to the statements figures.

Export data indicates that Tampico leads all ports, in 1918 more than 5,271,012 tons of petroleum having left that harbor. Approximately half that amount left via Tuxpan.

According to the statement there are 299 producing wells in Mexico.

The Outsiders

The vigorous cross examination, some weeks ago, of Henry Ford, by the attorneys representing the newspaper which Mr. Ford had sued for libel, disclosed to the world just how little an idealist who had started out to reform conditions, knew about facts.

However, Mr. Ford was only the harmless, well intentioned idealist whose program, if any real attempt had been made to execute it, would have resulted in no more serious consequences, in all probability, to anyone save Mr. Ford, than did his peace ship enterprise.

On Thursday, it was disclosed in the Senate committee's investigation seeking the cause of the great steel strike which has thrown hundreds of thousands of men out of employment, paralyzed the great steel plants of the nation and threatened to involve other workers, even American railway employees and the lake seamen in the whirlpool of discontent and disorder and waste, that one of the leaders of the strikers, John Fitzpatrick of Chicago, the chairman of the strikers' committee, was a horseshoer and knew nothing about conditions save what he learned from some of the steel workers.

By just such irresponsibles are disturbing and sometimes harmful movements launched. Mr. Ford, independently rich, secure from want which would trail in the wake of business derangement, could afford to see his dreams tried out and pay others to gather his information and do the work necessary to make the dream come true. Fitzpatrick, with nothing to lose, could afford to take a chance in creating a disturbance in the industrial world with a chance to gain fame and fortune in the confusion.

In both cases the workers eventually lose by industrial unrest. In all but a few isolated instances it is not the men most concerned who start these troubles. It is almost invariably the financially independent dreamer or the irresponsible agitator who "never worked and never will" that cause the unrest and discontent.

Working men and business men—the real parties in interest—would get along all right if outsiders who know nothing of and care less about real conditions would remain aloof.

Royal Visitors

King Albert and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium are on their way to the United States for a visit with the American people. They want to see the home land of the people who so unselfishly came to the aid of Belgium and France in their heroic struggle with the German military powers. The American people will welcome them and entertain them hospitably—no doubt of that.

We all have a sincere admiration for King Albert of Belgium, not because he is a king but because he is a real man—tested by the fires of adversity and of the demonstrated worth to measure up to America's standard of manhood.

Royalty as such and with only the title and pomp to recommend it has little attraction for Americans, but real men and women like King Albert and Queen Elizabeth always inspire the best opinion of the people of this nation.

Americans will forget Albert the King and welcome Albert the man and the leader of men. His place in the affections of the Belgian people and in the admiration of Americans has been fairly and honestly won and is secure without title and without the pomp and pageantry which attends royalty.

Helpful Disclosures

France is genuinely disturbed about the attitude of the United States Senate on the league of nations covenant. On Wednesday Premier Clemenceau was called before the Chamber of Deputies and asked to state his view of possibilities in the event the United States Senate delayed ratification of the treaty and the league covenant for a long time or rejected the league covenant proposal entirely.

The Premier expressed the opinion that a league of nations could probably be made effective without the United States becoming a member but that, in any event France would be protected by the alliance between Great Britain, France and the United States which in view of the broader, more comprehensive league of nations agreement would assure to France the assistance of this nation and Great Britain in the event of attack.

The developments in the French Chamber of Deputies on Wednesday disclosed clearly the position of this nation in the rearrangement of the world—either a member of the league of nations including eventually all nations and now twenty-seven nations, or an alliance of three nations to face other alliances.

The disclosures should be helpful to those who are doubtful as to what position this nation should assume with reference to the league proposal.

POETRY FOR TODAY

"WE'LL ALL COME THROUGH

Someh' keeps a-sayin', when the world is lookin' blue:
"We'll all come through."
We'll all come through."
It's a mighty cheerin' whisper to the grievin' heart of you—
"We'll all come through!"
I hear old Trouble, cryin' like a weel there, in the Night,
The shadows thick around me, an' a long road to the Light!
But someh' keeps a-sayin' that the road's a-turnin' right,
And "we'll all come through!"

Prayers an' tears, an' sighin' for the joys you never knew—
But—"we'll all come through—
We'll all come through!"
The ship'll make the harbor—for there's still a star or two—
"We'll all come through!"
It's the world where we're a-livin'—it's the work we have to do,
To keep the Dark a-singin' like the Light would sing to you!
An' Light's in sweet home-windows, an' that's earth an' heaven too!
"We'll all come through!"

REDLAND FIELD TO ACCOMMODATE 33,000 PERSONS

(By Associated Press)
Cincinnati, September 27 the home grounds of the Cincinnati National, winners of the National League pennant, which is known as Redland Field will seat approximately 27,000 persons and accommodate about 33,000 when the local team plays the Chicago White Sox, winners of the American League race for World's series championship honors.

The permanent stands seat 22,000 but the time the first game of the world's series is begun, new seats for 5,000 more persons will have been erected. In addition fans who are not fortunate enough to obtain coupon tickets for seats will find space for about 6,000 persons.

Early in August when Cincinnati played the New York Giants in what was considered by many baseball followers as the crucial games in the pennant race, slightly more than 31,000 persons were on the ball grounds. From this it can be seen that there will be no difficulty for at least 33,000 finding vantage places to view the games.

Redland is considered the last word in baseball parks. It is situated at Western Avenue, Findlay and York streets in the western section of the city. The permanent stands are of concrete and steel and the property is owned by the Cincinnati club. The building of the structure was started in September, 1911, and completed in April 1912, the total cost running to $399,000.

FIVE REDLEGS WERE FORMERLY WITH THE WHITE SOX

(By Associated Press.)
Chicago, September 27.—It is a singular coincidence that five members of the Cincinnati Nationals formerly wore the uniforms of the White Sox—the team they are to play for the world's baseball championship.
Eddie Roush, star batter and outfielder with the Reds, was with the White Sox for a tryout under the management of Jimmy Callahan in 1913, but was released to Lincoln. Morris Rath, the Red second baseman also was with the White Sox under Callahan. He was released to the Kansas City club where he came to the front as a 300 hitter. He was signed by Cincinnati last season—and made good from the start.

"Red" Eller, who has been pitching remarkable ball for the Reds was on the White Sox roster during the spring training trip of 1916, but was released to the Moline club of the Three-I-League.

The Sox also contributed two more players to the Reds, concerning whom little is heard. They are Henry Schreiber, utility infielder, who was with the Chicago club in 1914, and Artemus Ward Allen, a catcher, who was with Comiskey's club for a short time in 1911, later going to Minneapolis.

RANDOM NOTES

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

Supplies by airplane is the latest method of the American Red Cross for furnishing comforts to the men in military service.

The American punitive expedition in Mexico received recently 15,000 cigarettes by airplane, sent by the field director of the American Red Cross in the Big Bend district along the Rio Grande river.

This novel method of delivering Red Cross supplies to American bandit chasers south of the border was the result of information from Capt. Leonard Matlack, of the U. S. Cavalry, delivered in person in an airplane, that his men at the American base were entirely out of smokes. The captain had flown back to the border for a conference with General Dickman about the bandit hunt and said he would like to take a bundle of "fags" with him on his return to the base, owing to the slowness of the pack trains which already were winding through Northern Mexico carrying, among other things, such Red Cross comforts as toilet soap, chocolate bars, stationery, postals, pencils, cigarettes, smoking tobacco and matches.

The Red Cross didn't have to have a map drawn of the situation, and before the flying commander of the expedition was ready to start back to his camp, he had 15,000 cigarettes in his machine.

Altogether about 40,000 cigarettes have been sent to the troops in Mexico by pack train and airplane. The Big Bend organization of the Red Cross also handled airplane mail for the soldiers.

This is typical of the ingenuity of "The Greatest Mother" in meeting the needs of her "sons."

It is to continue such work as this and to establish a peace program of service to Americans, that funds obtained in the Red Cross Roll Call, November 2-11, will be used.

From New York comes the verdict that Man in general, and a "great trust of garment manufacturers in particular," are responsible for the "contortions" which women undergo to wear so-called fashionable clothes, the International Conference of Women Physicians was told today by Mrs. Beatrice Forbes-Robertson Hale.

Man, Mrs. Hale said, likes to have a "little, useless lily about the house to flatter his conceit that he can afford such a luxury."

While man was arraigned by Mrs. Hale as the primary cause of fashion's follies, a different element of society was blamed by Dr. Edith Hale Swift, of Boston. Dr. Swift found the origin of extravagant and unwholesome styles in apparel in the woman who makes "an exaggerated appeal."

The models produced for this type of women, asserted Dr. Swift, "are sanctioned by the unthinking woman of leisure in search of the easiest way to charm and display wealth." In turn, Dr. Swift said the woman of leisure is copied feebly by the great mass of women workers.

ADELINA PATTI'S SWEET VOICE HUSHED FOREVER

Great Singer Who Reigned Supreme in The World of Music Dies at Home in Wales.

Born in Spain She Was One of The Most Wonderful Singers Of All Time.

(By Associated Press)

London, September 27.—Adelina Patti, the prima donna, died this morning at her home in South Wales.

Mme Adelina Patti reigned for 40 years as queen of singers.

Her marvelous voice thrilled the greatest contemporaries of her days. The elder Dumas, the French dramatist, once said to her:

"Being a man and a Christian, I love to listen to your singing; but if I were a bird I would die of envy."

"She had tones so beautiful," said one eminent musical critic, "that they seemed to gush spontaneously from the very fountain-spring of vocal youth."

The child made her debut at Tripler Hall in New York, singing arias from the "Barber," in 1850. She was the juvenile prodigy of the day, and nearly ruined her voice by overwork. She appeared again at the age of 13. After a tour through the West Indies, she with drew to prepare for a great career.

It was the beginning of a dazzling conquest of all Europe. Royalty entertained her and courted her favors. The populace besieged her hotels and theatres. Men in all stations of life wooed her, but she brushed them aside with a laugh and drill. She finally capitulated at the age of 25 to Henri, Marquis de Caux, equerry to Napoleon III. They separated after a few years, Mme Patti finally securing a divorce in 1885 to marry Signor Ernest Nicolini, an Italian tenor singer.

Her first American tour began in 1881—her last in 1903. She was greeted by a magnificent ovation when she made her first appearance in opera in the New York Academy of Music, the scene of her girlish triumph of 20 years before. She was at the height of her career, and became the musical sensation of the winter. The following year she sang at the newly opened Metropolitan Opera House. Her guaranteed salary was $5,000 a night—and it was paid, for Mme. Patti invariably refused to appear until the money was in her possession.

Mme. Patti held the record as a box-office star in operatic circles. Then she appeared at a matinee concert in Mechanic's Hall in Boston in 1888, she faced an audience which had paid $18,500 to hear her. During a single tour through South America she received in salary and bonuses more than $300,000. It has been estimated that she earned more than $5,000,000 during her singing career.

She made her final professional appearance at the age of 65 in London. Her last days were passed in Wales at her beautiful castle, "Craig-y-Nos" with her third husband, Baron of Cedarston, whom she married in 1899, a year after the death of Nicolini.

Mme Patti is reputed to have left an estate valued at more than $3,000,000.

RED CROSS DRIVE TO COVER COUNTRY

November 2nd to November 11th is the date set for the Red Cross drive to cover this country for membership. The local branch is preparing to meet this campaign with a county drive and a committee is now under consideration.

The Red Cross states that the purpose of the drive is two-fold: Homes made wretched by the war still need help and communities at home need the Red Cross service.

This campaign will be known as the "Third Roll Call" and will be featured by coming to a closing on Armistice Day.

All former members are expected to renew their membership.

What the Modern Dairy Means to a Community

PEOPLE must have milk, without it they could not manage to get along. Folks are offered many substitutes for real milk, but as yet none have met the test.

To have a modern dairy in the community means a sure and an adequate supply of milk, properly handled and properly distributed. It means that the patrons may have a regular supply daily or an extra amount whenever they wish it.

In short, the modern dairy means that the community will be supplied with an exceedingly important factor in their daily food.

To have a modern dairy is one of the greatest assets any city can have. It is an essential to good health, comfort and happiness. It is a vital factor in the child life of the community.

We are proud that we conduct the kind of a dairy that means something to the community—an asset to the city.

LOCAL BOY PREPARING TO BEAT BINCKLEY

TOM (MIKE) HILLERY.

Tom Hillery, the Washington strong boy, is making fast progress at Matsuda's training camp in Columbus and will round into the best form before his match Monday night in this city with Cliff Binckley, the champion of Ohio.

Followed at every move by the faithful Matsuda he is going through a strenuous schedule each day. Thursday morning he made an eight mile hike before breakfast and then pulled the weights and went through several stunts with the Jap. In the afternoon he worked out with a number of Columbus wrestlers.

Indications are that this will be the best drawing match of the season and a number of Columbus fans, followers of Binckley, are expected to see the match.

VISITING TEAM IS SMOTHERED BY WASHINGTON

Williamsport Pigskin Chasers Fail to Make Single Point in Opening Game.

Fine Form Shown by Blue and White Aggregation Friday Afternoon.

Friday afternoon at East End field the '19 football season was opened with a smashing victory by the Washington High eleven over the Williamsport gridders. Never at any time was the Blue and White forced to the limit of its strength and it remains until the next game to see just how powerful a machine Coach Moorehead has under his guardianship. The final count was 46 to 0.

Because of a minor injury received in practice Captain Craig was not in uniform and his duty was given to Weaver, the huge fullback. Washington kicked off to the visitors and the ball was put in play in the middle of the field. The Washington warriors soon had the oval in their possession and in about six minutes of play quarterback Rogers put the ball across the line for the first touch-down of the year. Weaver kicked goal.

Washington scored again in the second quarter with solid line bucks by Weaver, Rogers, Swartz, and the ball was carried across by "Red" Dern. The half ended with the ball in Washington's possession in the center of the field.

Williamsport showed to better advantage in the second half but Coach Moorehead had plenty of reserve material on the sidelines and the Washington force was virtually a fresh team during the entire game. Almost every man wearing the Blue and White was given a chance to show his ability.

Weaver and Dern again added to the score in the third quarter by bucking the ball across the field and then tearing through the Williamsport defense from the twenty yard line.

A feature play was worked successfully in the last quarter when a fake punt formation was made and the pigskin carried through center. The line was a stone wall in the Blue and White defense and Dern ran through with the ball for a score from the fifty yard line.

Score by quarters.

PLANNING 7,000 MILE SEAPLANE FLIGHT

Washington, September 27.—Two long distance seaplane flights are planned for early next year by the navy, one to Brazil and the other to the Philippines. Planes of entirely new construction probably will be used.

There's a Touch of Tomorrow

in All That Cole Does Today

The Vital Importance of What is to Be

THE Delphian oracle exercised its mighty influence over the ancient Greeks, not because it interpreted what had happened—but because it prophesied what was to come.

In this day and age, there's nothing more obsolete than yesterday's newspaper, but there's always a crowd around a bulletin board!

The world moves irresistibly forward—onward. There's no standing still. Those who do not progress fall behind.

What is to be—not what has been—commands our attention. Interest centers in the future—not in the past.

For ten years the career of the Cole has been characterized by big undertakings.

It was one of the first two American-built eight-cylinder cars. It was the first automobile to which the principles of aerotype construction were applied.

But, if the Cole company had stopped there—if it had not built a structure for future achievement on this foundation of past accomplishment, it could not have progressed.

Cole's Latest Creations Herald Future Progress

COLE contributions have been significant. Season after season, year after year, they have given the motoring world things that were new, original and a bit in advance of the times.

The Aero-EIGHT was the sponsor of a new fashion in motor cars. The open models came as a complete innovation in body designing and performance efficiency.

The new Aero-EIGHT all-season cars, which have just appeared, are, likewise, exclusively new and advanced conceptions. Their flush panel construction is an advantageous and pleasing departure in coach building.

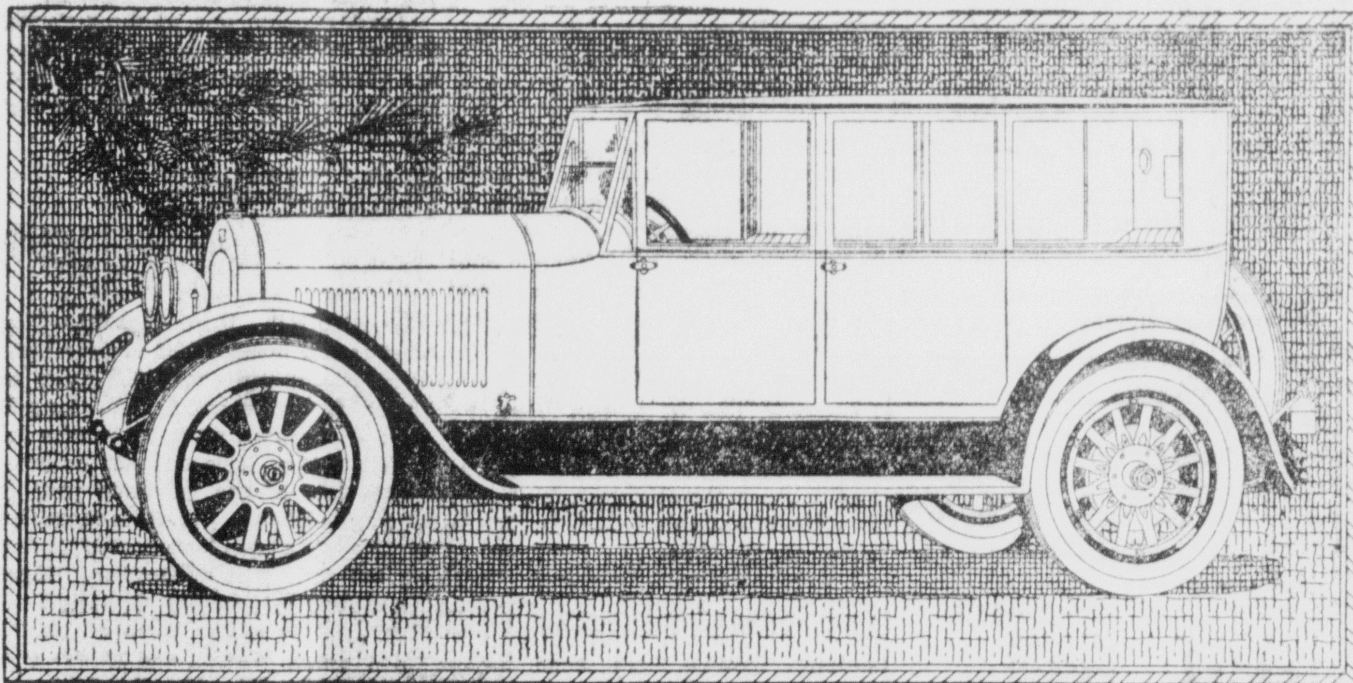

Their restful comfort, their easy riding qualities, their wide range of performance is not to be compared with any previous attainment in the development of enclosed equipages.

The vacuum, full-vision windshield of the Tourosine and Toursedan, is a significant improvement.

The care and taste evidenced in the exterior finish, the selection of the velvety fabrics within, and the completeness and dignity of the minor refinements with which the Aero-EIGHT all-season cars are adorned, bespeak the fine workmanship they embody.

Inspired by a single aim—to anticipate the trend of the future and be the first to give it tangible expression—Cole is now universally recognized as the creator of advanced motor cars.

That is why—when a distinctively new type of car appears—the public anticipates finding the Cole nameplate on it.

PACKERS WATCH COLUMBUS CASE OF PORK SEIZURE

Columbus, Ohio, September 27.—The "Big Five" packing companies of Chicago are watching the efforts of the Columbus Packing Company to obtain before the Supreme Court of United States a reversal of the decision of the Ohio Courts upholding the seizure of 150,000 pounds of pork loin belonging to the concern, according to attorneys of the Company. Under the provisions of the state law forbidding the storage of food longer than six months, the pork was seized in August and is being disposed of to the public here.

Application for a writ of certiorari which if granted will result in the case being argued before the United States Supreme Court on its merits, has been made by the company's attorneys. The application for the writ will be heard by the entire court at Washington, October 6.

Reversal of the decision of the state courts, which was upheld by the state supreme court, would give cause for action against the receivers of other stores of food in similar cases, according to the packing company's attorneys.

The Company contends that pork was seized without due process of the law. It maintains further that it was licensed by the United States Food Administration and was subject to its regulations in the matter of storing food rather than to the state of Ohio.

Under the national regulation food may be kept in storage during the period of emergency caused by the war up to twelve months. The state law limits such holdings to six months. The value of the pork, more than two-thirds of which has been disposed of, is said to be $36,000.

LEGAL NOTICE

Sarah J. Shepard, residence unknown, will take notice that on the 18th day of August, 1919, A. T. Shepard filed his petition in the Probate Court, Fayette County, Ohio, being cause No. praying for a divorce from said Sarah J. Shepard on the grounds of gross neglect of duty and wilful absence. Said cause will be for hearing on and after the 29th day of September, 1919.

FIRE PREVENTION
DAY OBSERVATION

State Fire Marshal Alfred Fleming has issued the following on observance of October 9th as patriotic Fire Prevention Day:

WHY IS OCTOBER 9 PATRIOTIC FIRE PREVENTION DAY?

BECAUSE IT IS THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE GREAT CHICAGO FIRE, WHERE AMERICA'S CARDINAL SIN—CARELESSNESS—NEARLY WIPED OUT A CITY.

BUY WHY RECALL THAT TERRIBLE HOLOCAUST? BECAUSE AMERICA TODAY IS PAYING $450,000,000 FOR FIRE WASTE AND 80 PER CENT OF THIS ENORMOUS SUM IS NEEDLESSLY AND NEEDLESSLY BURNED!

WHY OHIO SHOULD OBSERVE THE DAY MORE THAN USUAL.

BECAUSE: It stands as a monument to American CARELESSNESS, commemorating as it does the great Chicago fire. It is a reminder that Patriotic American people should be CONSTANTLY on guard against the country's greatest PERIL!

It calls attention to the dangers of the PRESENT and SHOULD eradicate dangers of the FUTURE.

It reminds us that since January 1, 1919, 178 OHIO people—men, women and children have met DEATH through fire, another 315 have been CRIPPLED!

It reminds us that over 90 per cent of these casualties WERE DUE TO CARELESSNESS.

That 80 per cent of all the fires in Ohio are due to carelessness.

That over 80 per cent of the 2879 fires in one year in HOMES were due to carelessness or careless conditions!

That CHILDREN and MATCHES caused an Ohio loss of nearly $75,000 in one year, and that their ELDERS, careless with matches, started 367 fires in one year that cost $130,605.

That 209 unrodded buildings were struck and $359,550 went up in smoke.

That SPONTANEOUS COMBUSTION caused 193 fires and a loss of $180,210 and that DEFECTIVE FLUES, GRATES and STOVE-PIPES called departments out 549 times.

The per capita fire loss of the United States, due to careless conditions and to carelessness is $2.50; in Europe it is 33 cents.

Better construction, more personal liability and less CARELESSNESS is needed to bring down the per capita loss.

October 9 is the day when Patriotic Ohio people should be able to say whether or not they have done THEIR part toward fire PREVENTION.

HAS MR. PAT DUNCAN BEEN PLUCKED FROM MINORS JUST IN TIME TO BECOME HERO?

Pat Duncan in action.

A few weeks ago "Pat" Duncan was playing the outfield for the Birmingham team in the Southern league. Big league fans knew nothing about him. Then, one day Pat Moran was tipped off to him. Moran had been worried all season about the leftfield position. Neither Bressler nor Magee had come up to expectations. So Moran took a flier and said, "Bring Pat on." Now Duncan has become the sensation of the big leagues because of his terrific hitting and his spectacular fielding. He's booked to play the outfield birth that Bressler and Magee failed to fill.

BIG LEAGUE MAN
JOINS CLINTONS

"Bear Cat" Ramsey, a big slugger from the Western League and an all round baseball man, has been signed by the Wilmington Clintons and will be a member of the team for the remainder of the season. Ramsey has just concluded a successful season with the Western League and will be on hand to play his first game against the Washington Athletics, Sunday. "Snag" Emery, one of the favorite players of the Wilmington team who has played occasionally this summer, will be in the Clinton uniform for the rest of the season.

PLAN WELCOME FOR PERSHING

(By Associated Press)
 Lincoln, Neb., September 27.—City officials and members of various civic organizations are busy with plans to give a fitting reception to General John J. Pershing when he comes for a visit to this city in the near future.

The date of the general's visit is as yet indefinite, but it is expected that he will arrive here sometime during the early part of October. There are several reasons for his visit here. First Lincoln is the home of his 10-year-old son, Warren and of the general's sisters, Miss May Pershing and Mrs. D. M. Mutter with whom young Pershing makes his home. And in the second place Lincoln was at one time the home of the general himself.

It was here that General Pershing received an important promotion in his military career, when as commandant of the University of Nebraska cadets, he was promoted from second to first lieutenant. That was back in the early nineties, but a number of his old acquaintances of those days are still here, and are looking forward to a chance of again meeting the man who led America's forces to victory in the world-war.
